2015 ACDHA Meeting

The 71st annual meeting of the American Cream Draft Horse Association was held on June 18, 2015 in Shipshewana, Indiana. The meeting hosts were Sue and Larry Engel, Sheila Johnson and Nancy McBride. A good time was had by all. Hosts Sue and Larry Engel had a much anticipated event the morning of the meeting. Larry who was at home tending the animals awoke to a new foal standing in the paddock. So Sue had good news of a new American Cream Draft foal to add to the books when the meeting began. When Larry brought the Subway lunch furnished by the Engel's there were questions about the newest member to the Engel herd. The foal is a colt with a lot of the same markings as his sire-Million Dollar Max. Our meeting started out on a very positive note. And all those attending the Saturday activities at the Engel's were anxious to see the little fellow.

FROM THE DRIVERS SEAT

Hope everyone had a safe and pleasant summer. How quickly it came and is now over with. Hopefully the rain that a lot of us need will soon appear.

Judging by the number of inquires that I have gotten recently about foals and mature animals I think that we are seeing a renewed interest in our breed. I always tell everyone seeking information to check the web site. It is important that you keep the web site up to date.

From the information I have received it appears that we might have a record number of foals this year. The only way that we will know for sure if that is the case is for everyone to provide the Secretary with foaling, breeding and stallion reports when they are due.

While it seems that our meeting is far off, June 2016, it will be upon us very quickly. Sandy and John Schwartzler have done a terrific job of providing us with an interesting 3 days in Reno. If you decide to come in on Wednesday and stay additional days the hotel - the Peppermill Resort/Casino has agreed to honor our special rates. The Reno cattle drive/rodeo is a popular event. We have a block of 18 rooms reserved for the ACDHA. I suggest you make your reservations early to take advantage of the very reasonable rates.

Thursday - cattle drive and wagon train arrive in Reno

Friday - ACDHA Annual meeting during the day. The evening is the Rodeo, we will have a reserved block of seats for those making reservations.

Saturday - round trip steam engine ride from Carson City to Virginia City.

Looks like a fun and interesting time. Don't put it off, make your reservations soon.

The nominating committee was appointed. The members are Sandy Schwartzler - California, Wendell Lupkes - Iowa, John Lasko - Pennsylvania. There are 2 Director positions up for election. If you are interested in running for one of these positions or know of someone who is, please contact one of the committee members.

Remember, pictures, articles etc are always needed for the newsletter. It's not up to the editor to find the material for the newsletter.

One last reminder that would make it easier to keep our herd book current. MAKE SURE THE TRANSFER PAPERS ARE DONE WHEN AN ANIMAL IS SOLD.

Best wishes for a Happy Holiday Season which will be on us before you can turn around.

Frank Tremel
President

Thanks for Coming

It was good to see everyone who was able to make our annual meeting in Shipshewana. We had a good turn out of members. It was my first time to help host a meeting and I really enjoyed it. I hope everyone enjoyed themselves with the flea market shopping, the Topeka sale and all the eating we always seem to do.

I had the pleasure of going shopping with Paula Tremel and Karen (Smith) Watson. They were quite surprised to see the "Ful-O-Pep" feed sign in the grocery store.

Now we can look forward to our meeting next year in Reno, Nevada.

Don Johnson inducted into the Iowa Draft Horse Association Hall of Fame at the 2015 Iowa State Fair

Iowa Draft Horse Hall of Fame 2015

Don's love of horses began at a very young age. He would help his dad with the drafts and had a favorite riding horse. As Don became older, he began to show interest in learning about the drafts. Don bought an old cream colored draft team of his own and after doing some research, discovered that they were American Creams. American Cream Draft horses are the only draft horse recognized as a breed that originated in the United States and even better..IOWA. This team was the beginning of Don's mission to help save this endangered breed. Don became involved in the American Cream Draft Horse Association; He served on the Board of Directors and President of the Association over the years. Don never missed the chance to promote this breed and his horses could be found each year in the Avenue of Breeds at the Iowa State Fair.

Don wasn't all about promotion but also cared about sustaining the breed. He started an intensive breeding program..working to ensure the distinct breed qualities, cream color, pink skin, white mane/tail and amber eyes, were continued and improved for the future of the breed. Don at one time had six mares and two studs, producing over 35 colts through the years. The colts were sold all over the United States; east to west, and north to south.

In the 90's Don turned his interest to the Percheron breed and draft horse farming. Don would spend many hours with his Amish friends learning all there was to know about farm implements. Don attended many plowing matches through these years and the family enjoyed all the pictures, ribbons and trophies Don would return home with. Don enjoyed the people he met at the competitions and all the stories told. The highlight for Don was attending the 2010 World Percheron Congress held in Des Moines. With his beloved team, Lil and Lacy (a mother-daughter team), he won first place in the Barnyard Pull competition.

Don would always take the time to explain training and equipment to the next generation and pretty much anyone who wanted to listen. He used his horses for hayrides, parades, weddings and family reunions. When Don's health began to fail, his oldest son, Chad, and friends would hitch the horses to allow Don to keep doing what he loved. Don would be honored by this induction into the Draft Horse Hall of Fame. His love for his horses was one of the things that kept him going and pushing forward when his respiratory disease was winning the battle. The legacy that (we hope) Don leaves on the Draft Horse community is one of quiet resolve..perseverance, improvement, and a little friendly competition.
